

Exodus 15:1-21:

¹Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD:

“I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously.
Both horse and driver he has hurled into the sea.

²The LORD is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation.
He is my God, and I will praise Him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

³The LORD is a warrior; The LORD is his name.

⁴Pharaoh’s chariots and his army, he has hurled into the sea.

The best of Pharaoh’s officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

⁵The deep has covered them, they sank to the depths like a stone.

⁶Your right hand, LORD, was majestic in power.

Your right hand, LORD, shattered the enemy.

⁷In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you.

You unleashed your fiery fury; it consumed them like stubble.

⁸By the blast of your nostrils, the waters piled up.

The surging waters stood up like a wall; the deep congealed in the heart of the sea.

⁹The enemy boasted, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake them.

I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them.

I will draw my sword, and my hand will destroy them.’

¹⁰But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them.

They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

¹¹Who, among the gods, is like you, LORD?

Who is like you—majestic in holiness,

awesome in glory, working wonders?

¹²You stretched out your right hand; the earth swallowed them.

¹³In your steadfast love you led the people whom you redeemed;

In your strength you guided them to your holy dwelling.

¹⁴The nations heard and trembled; anguish gripped the people of Philistia.

¹⁵Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed; trembling seized the leaders of Moab, all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.

¹⁶Terror and dread fell upon them; by the might of your arm, they became still as a stone, until your people, LORD, passed by, until the people you bought passed by.

¹⁷You brought them in and planted them on the mountain of your possession, the place, LORD, that you made your dwelling, the sanctuary, LORD, that your hands have established.

¹⁸The LORD will reign forever and ever.”

¹⁹When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and charioteers went into the sea, the LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground. ²⁰Then Miriam the prophet, Aaron’s sister, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women followed her, with timbrels and dancing. ²¹Miriam sang to them:

“Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously.
Both horse and driver he has hurled into the sea.”
